"There are numerous individuals in Delaware who have played significant roles in providing opportunities to women in athletics," said Delaware State Director of Athletics Candy Young. "It's important that we express our gratitude to these leaders and their inspiration to young women in leadership roles."

The Delaware Diamond Extravaganza began in 2009 as a way to recognize, celebrate and honor individuals in the state of Delaware that have helped women's athletics grow and excel in addition to creating additional scholarship and financial support to aid female athletics programs. The DDE identifies coaches, administrators, athletes and contributors who meet the following criteria:

- Over 10 years commitment to women's athletic programs
- Activist for Title IX and gender equity
- Enhanced life skills knowledge through women's athletics
- Former player actively involved with women's athletics within the Delaware community

The guest speaker for the event will be Herbert Ames, CEO and founder of First Choice Bank and author of "Aim High."

The Delaware Diamond Extravaganza will also feature a silent auction.

Tickets for the Delaware Diamond Extravaganza are $50 per person in advance, $30 for students and $65 at the door. For more information, please contact the Delaware State University Department of Athletics at 302.857.6030. Online Registration [1].
