

DSU Speaks to Wm Henry Middle School Students about Success

Posted: October 18, 2012

DSU President Harry L. Williams paid a visit to 5th and 6th graders of William Henry Middle School on October 18, 2012. He spoke about his experience-based keys of success.

DSU President Harry L. Williams paid a visit to the 5th and 6th graders of William Henry Middle School on Oct. 18 to give them his experience-based keys of success.

DSU President Harry L. Williams speaks with students after his Oct. 18 presentation at William Henry Middle School of Dover.

Dr. Williams told two separate assemblies about the vital lessons he learned as a middle school student in North Carolina, giving them the wisdom he learned about the importance of listening, obedience, being persistent, and in believing in future success.

The DSU president's presentation was part of the "You Are Somebody" campaign by the school's Parent Teacher Organization.

Source URL: <http://www.desu.edu/news/dsu-speaks-wm-henry-middle-school-students-about-success>