Chairman Land returned to the chair and thanked Mr. Perkins for chairing this committee.

Chairman Land asked for and received a motion that was seconded to accept the report of the Presidential Search Committee.

The motion passed unanimously.
Chairman Land gave way to President Smith.

THE PRESIDENT’S REPORT (Dr. Claibourne D. Smith, acting president)

President Smith commented that he was honored that the Board of Trustees would entrust him with the daunting task and role as Acting President of the University. He stated that he was committed to the University and was grateful to the staff and faculty.

President Smith reflected on his first day on the job. He commented that he had lunch with the students in the University Café. He said the students are outstanding and that they are thrilled to be here, and look for opportunities to work with people who care about them. He stated that the students indicated it was their first opportunity to have lunch with the President informally. He commented that there would be an on-going period to take time to meet with student leaders, to reinforce those interactions, and to see and be seen with the students.

President Smith highlighted the following:

- International collaboration with Mass Communications students working this summer at Beijing Sports University covering the Olympics.
- Five Mass Communications students from China are here for a semester.
- Dwayne Bell, Public Safety Officer won two gold medals and one silver medal during the International Police and Fire Olympics.
- Acknowledgment of the following personnel changes: Dr. Harry Williams, provost and vice president for Academic Affairs; Dr. Paul Bryant, vice president for Student Affairs; Dr. Bradley Skelcher, associate provost and acting dean of the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences; Dr. Young S. Kwak, interim dean of the College of Business; Dr. Akwasi Osei, interim associate dean of the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences and Dr. Michael Casson, interim associate dean of the College of Business.

Chairman Land asked for and received a motion that was seconded to accept the President’s Report.

The motion passed unanimously.

Chairman Land asked for public comments. The following individuals signed up for public comment: Mr. Clarence Selby and Dr. Marquea King.
Mr. Selby commented in his capacity as president of Local Union 1267 at the University. He stated that he represented 75 members of the maintenance division and that there were issues related to a labor contract that needed to be addressed with regards to negotiations, and unfair labor practices. He commented that he wanted to get to the bottom of the issue before it reached this level and asked that the Board of Trustees hear them out.

Dr. Marquea King commented on behalf of several DSU Alums and current students of the MARC Program who were in attendance. She stated that the group’s intent was to request that there be a change in the directorship of the MARC Program in that Dr. F. Helmy be reinstated as the director. She thanked the President and Provost for being available to meet with them and inviting them to the lunch presentation held earlier today. She commented that the group looked forward to an amicable and swift resolution to this matter.

Chairman Land thanked each individual for their comments and made the following announcements:

- A reception for faculty and staff would be held at 6:00 p.m. at the President’s House today.
- Faculty research presentations would take place in the Multi-purpose Room from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. today.
