

Delaware State University Policy

Title: Fundraising and Soliciting on University Property	Administrative Council approval date: 10/24/04
Related Policies and Procedures: Ethics, Student Handbook

The University does not, and will not, permit fundraising and/or soliciting for business entities, other than the University itself, on University property except as authorized in writing by the University's office of Institutional Advancement. Approval will be considered based upon the University's belief that such fundraising or soliciting will benefit the University's established objectives.