Residence Hall Living: What to Bring

Below is a list of items that are prohibited in residence halls

things to leave behind
- Toaster Ovens
- Hot Plates
- Microwaves
- Refrigerators*
  (doctor’s authorization needed)
- Incense
- Candles
- Pets
- Expensive jewelry, family heirlooms
- Alcohol or other drugs and paraphernalia
- Firearms, knives or other weapons
- Fireworks
- Paintball guns, airguns, BB guns
- Portable heater
- Coffee pots
- Toasters
- Grills
- Popcorn poppers
- Hot plates (other than hot-air)
- Skillets
- Other cooking equipment
- Air conditioners
- Gas appliances
- Dehumidifiers
- Heating pads
- Electric blankets
- Candle warmers
- Hot-air popcorn poppers
- Sun lamps or indoor grills such as "The George Foreman Grill"

*If there are health reasons for certain equipment, specifically air conditioners, you must receive approval from the Student Health Services and be assigned to a hall where central air conditioning is provided. Appropriate documentation from a licensed physician is required.

Tampering, altering or rewiring electrical outlets is a fire and safety hazard and is not permitted. Overloading outlets with many appliances is also a fire hazard. Any arrangement of furniture or decorations that blocks or impedes exits or entrances to a residence hall room is prohibited.