STUDY ABROAD IN NOVA SCOTIA & ICELAND SUMMER 2017
During Summer 2017 for 11 days, July 17-July 27, the History Department will lead a study abroad in Nova Scotia and Iceland. On this educational excursion, participants will travel to two countries for the price of one. First, fly straight to Halifax spending seven days learning about the African experience by seeing the Book of Negroes, visiting Africville and the Black Cultural Center, as well as attending Afrifest. Spend four days in Reykjavik, Iceland, where you can bathe in the famous Blue Lagoon, visit the Skogafoss waterfall, view volcanos, lava fields and so much more. If interested, please contact Dr. Fletcher concerning price, affordable bi-monthly payments and itinerary at kfletcher@desu.edu or 443.550.1198.
This opportunity is open to all DSU faculty, staff and students. The first 10 students to sign up will have their trip insurance paid subject to available grant money.
