Janet McCrea
Career and Academic Advisor

Janet started her journey at Delaware State University as a full-time, non-traditional student in 1997. In 1999 she became a secretary in Hospitality Management. She continued her education as a part-time student and received her undergraduate degree in Business Administration in 2003. She has such a sincere desire to assist other students in pursuing their degrees that she accepted a position in the College of Business Advisement Center as an Academic Advisor in 2003. Her goal is to continue helping students pursue their dreams. In her spare time she enjoys listening to music and has a special interest in event planning and decorating.
