Jewel Hopkins

Career and Academic Advisor

Jewel is a Nationally Certified Counselor with a Master’s in Community Counseling from Wilmington University. She formerly served as a Program Manager/Academic Counselor in the Student Support Services Program, as well as, an Adjunct Instructor for the Human Services Department at Delaware Technical Community College in Dover, DE. She has provided individual, academic, and career counseling to students who have faced various challenges as they pursue their degrees. She strives to provide a place of support for her students as they test their limits and boundaries and achieve their own personal and professional goals. Mrs. Hopkins has over 20 years’ experience providing various counseling and mental health education and has a part-time practice where she provides individual, family, and group counseling in the community.