Research Symposium and Poster Session

Thursday, April 28, Delaware State University
Martin Luther King Multipurpose Room B

Attendees: The INBRE Community, including current and prospective INBRE investigators and students, EAB, committee members, core directors.

12:00 -1:00 Lunch and posters/slide show. Martin Luther King Student Center Multipurpose Room B

1:00 - 1:30 Welcome, Introductions and INBRE updates

1:30 - 2:00 Dr. Michael Weinrich (invited), Director of the National Center for Medical Rehabilitation Research, National Institutes of Health

2:00 - 3:00 Scientific Presentations by INBRE Investigators:

  Cancer Research:
  Mary Ann McLane (University of Delaware)
  Thomas Mennella (Delaware State University)

  Cardiovascular Research:
  William Farquhar (University of Delaware)
  Claudine Jurkovitz (Christiana Care Health System)

  Neuroscience Research:
  Sunil Agrawal (University of Delaware)
  Wenlan Wang (Nemours/A.I. duPont Hospital)

3:00 - 3:30 Break

3:30 - 4:30 Parallel breakout sessions

Session A  INBRE investigator Meeting: Review final year and post-INBRE expectations. Present Grant Review Office concept regarding fall NIH submissions. Martin Luther King Student Center, Multipurpose Room A. (Current INBRE investigators only)

Session B  Open information session for prospective INBRE applicants on the new application format, career plan and mentorship requirements, and review criteria that will be implemented in the May 1, 2011 call for pilot project proposals. Martin Luther King Student Center, Multipurpose Room C. (Open to interested future applicants)

Directions to Delaware State University: http://www.desu.edu/directions