List of Student Organizations and its descriptions for the year 2011 – 2012

1. 1 Entity-Couture

The objective of this organization is to bring high fashion, urban style and everyday looks to students on and off campus. The goal is to inspire and transpire different fashion trends and to spread cultural diversity on the runway.

For further details, please contact, Rhonda Holt at 302-883-7058 or through email at rholt@desu.edu.

2. Above and Beyond

The objective of this organization is to help all student bodies at Delaware State University to move to great levels while not leaving others behind.

For further details, please contact Aisha Hunter at 302-857-6247 or through email at ahunter@desu.edu

3. Accounting & Finance Club

The mission of this club is to address the professionals needs of its members and to build leaders that shape the future of the accounting and finance profession with an unfaltering commitment to inspire the same in their successors.

For further details, please contact Joan Williamson at 302-857-6928 or through email at jwilliamson@desu.edu

4. Africans in Alliance

The objective of this club is to unite Africans by creating a sense of community amongst its members. It works to encourage intellectual, social and cultural support as well as cultivate leaders among the body of its affiliates.

For further details, please contact Mr. Joe Amoako at 302-857-6593 or through email at jamoako@students.desu.edu
5. American Chemical Society

The objective of this organization is to advance the broader chemistry enterprise and its practitioners for the benefit of Earth and its people.

For further details, please contact, Bryan Wakefield at 302-857-6537 or through email at bwakefield@desu.edu

6. Alliance Minority Participation

The objective of this club is to raise the level of minority students who are interested in the science, technology, engineering and mathematics to raise interest of minority students to pursue an advance degree in Masters or PhD.

For further details, please contact, Tabitha Myers at 857-7869 or through email at tmyers@desu.edu

7. Allied Health Leadership Organization

The objective of this organization is to help students of Delaware State University achieve the highest level of health awareness possible.

For further details, please contact, Michael Holmstrup at 302-857-6711 or through email at mholmstrup@desu.edu

8. Caribbean Student Association

The objective of this organization is to expand the knowledge of Caribbean culture through the peers of Delaware State University.

For further details, please contact, Dr. Hazel Beaumont a 302-857-6684 or through email at hbeaumont@desu.edu
9. Chinese Students and Scholars Association

The objective of this organization is to develop students with active and creative minds, a sense of understanding and compassion for others and the courage to act on their beliefs.

For further details, please contact, Fengshan Liu at 302-857-6646/7418 or through email at fliu@desu.edu

10. Class Records

The objective of this club is to provide the DSU community with a diverse multicultural exposure to music, while showcasing local talent and serving the community.

For further details, please contact, David Tolley at 818-883-1155 or through email at dtolley@desu.edu

11. Young Democrats

The objective of this organization is to teach people how to network on a positive, energetic and professional level as well as taking the initiative to provide the necessary skills to succeed and to excel in being self-empowered.

For further details, please contact, Dr. Udezulu at 302-632-7632 or through email at ludezulu@desu.edu

12. DSU Forces

The objective of this club is to provide military members, veterans and their dependents with the resources, support and advocacy required for a meaningful and successful university experience to graduation and preparation beyond.

For further details, please contact Wendelin Henry at 302-857-6376 or through email at whenry@desu.edu
13. DSU Gospel Choir

The objective of this organization is to compel men and women to Christ through our singing and the way we live.

For further details, please contact, Dedine Couch at 302-465-4030 or through email at dcouch@desu.edu

14. DSU Flying Hornets Flight Team

The objective of this organization is to develop and advance aviation education; to promote, encourage and foster safety in aviation; to promote and foster communications and cooperation between aviation students, educators, educational institutions and the aviation industry; and to provide an arena for collegiate aviation competition.

For further details, please contact, Marc Anderson at 302-331-1467 or through email at marcatdel@yahoo.com.

15. DSU Wildlife Society

The objective of this organization is to increase game and non-game wildlife and fisheries awareness and to expose students interested in wildlife to many unique educational opportunities in an effort to provide more fulfilling and enriched learning experiences while at DSU.
For further details, please contact, Dr. Kevina Vulinec at 302-857-6457 or through email at kvulinec@desu.edu

16. English Club

The objective of this club is to ensure that all students majoring and minoring in English are prepared for a career that is grounded in an appreciation for English language and word language.

For further details, please contact, Myrna Nurse at 302-857-6574 or through email at mnurse@desu.edu
17. Entrepreneurship Club

To nurture, enhance, and develop today’s entrepreneur’s on campus. To bridge the people who are on campus with those who are off campus. To help and establish a mutual connection among all the business students. To show and give students the necessary tools needed to be a successful entrepreneur.

For further details, please contact Constant Beugre at 302-857-6933 or through email at cbeugre@desu.edu

18. Food & Nutrition Club

The objective of this club is to provide students in Food and Nutrition Sciences and other disciplines with extracurricular activities including service learning, field trips, and professional development opportunities related to food and nutrition.

For further details, please contact Carol Giesecke at 302-857-6439 or through email at cgiecke@desu.edu

19. Forensic Club

The objective of this club is geared towards students who are pursuing a career in forensic biology, forensic chemistry, and criminal justice.

For further details, please contact Clytrice Watson at 302-857-7485 or through email at cawatson@desu.edu

20. Haitian Student Association

The mission for this association for this year is to reform the bonds of the Haitian Community within the Delaware State family of students.

For further details, please contact Dr. Ladji Sacko at 302-857-6598 or through email at lsacko@desu.edu
21. Hidden Vanity Dance Team

The objective of this organization is to provide DSU students and staff an overall campus life with a quality of dancing and performing that will display integrity, passion and most importantly great character.

For further details, please contact, Chantae Vinson at 302-857-7497 or through email at vinson@desu.edu

22. Honors Students Association

This association is dedicated to the cultivation, maturation, and outstanding academic achievement of the DSU Honors students whose first priority is individual academic achievement while representing DSU as a whole with honor and integrity.

For further details, please contact, Dr. Dawn Lott at 302-857-6338 or through email at dlott@desu.edu

23. Inspire Scholars

The objective of this organization is to promote academic excellence and continued community service amongst DSU recipients of the Inspire Scholarship.

For further details, please contact, Germaine Scott-Cheatham at 302-857-7850 or through email at gcheatha@desu.edu

24. Investment Club

The objective of this organization is to disseminate basic knowledge in investing and personal finance. The club achieves that through seminars featuring industry professionals and organized workshops.

For further details, please contact, Dr. Nandita Das at 302-857-6940 or through email at ndas@desu.edu
25. Japanese Culture and Language

The objective of this club is to aid students in learning the Japanese Language, to provide activities and opportunities for students to experience the Japanese Culture and to promote the importance of knowing second language in a globalized world.

For further details, please contact Abdul Diop at 302-857-6651 or through email at adiop@desu.edu

26. Language and Culture Ambassador Program

The objective of this organization is to receive, welcome, assist and expand the American culture to Delaware State University’s Foreign exchange students during each semester of every year.

For further details, please contact Abdul Diop at 302-857-6560 or through email at adiop@desu.edu

27. Latino Student Association

The objective of this organization is to promote and increase Latino / Hispanic awareness at DSU through the planning of cultural, political, academic, and social events that portrait the different aspects of Latin American Culture.

For Further details, please contact, Leida Sanchez at 302-857-6535 or through email at lsanchez@desu.edu.

28. Limitless Fashion Club

The objective of this organization is to build character and confidence in men and women. To produce persons who are actively involved in campus activities and community outreach. To create activities and shows that entertains Delaware State University’s population.

For further details, please contact, Rhonda D. Thompson at 302-857-7226 or through email at rthompson@desu.edu.
29. Mass Communications Society

The objective of this organization is to provide students with greater exposure to professionals and media outlets. The chapter sponsors workshops, seminars, and portfolio reviews; takes field trips; brings in visiting professionals; and holds social events.

For further details, please contact Dr. Francine Edwards at 302-857-6570 or through email at fedwards@desu.edu

30. Math Club

The Math Club has a mission to outreach students of all majors and emphasize the importance of mathematics in everyday life. It will implement new learning strategies through games, activities, and social events to help students discover easy and fun ways to study math.

For further details, please contact Pablo Suavez at 302-857-7583 or through email at psuavez@desu.edu

31. Men of Color Alliance (M.O.C.A)

The objective of this club is to educate and elevate the DSU Student population by promoting professionalism and self-empowerment and to promote unity among black men on campus.

For further details, please contact Michael Casson at 302-857-6839 or through email at mcasson@desu.edu

32. NAACP Youth and College Unit 2718

The objective of this organization is to support the policies of the association and the national office, which seeks, improve the political, educational, social and economic status of African Americans and other racial and ethnic minorities.

For further details, please contact Rosetta Brickhouse at 302-857-6140 or through email at rbrickhouse@desu.edu
33. National Associate of Collegiate Scholars

The objective of this club is to recognize and celebrate high achievement among first and second year college students, also to encourage and promote leadership and high standards throughout the collegiate experience.

For further details, please contact, Stephen Speed at 302-857-6712 or through email at sspeed@desu.edu

34. National Association for Music Association

The objective of this club is to advance music education by encouraging the study and making of music by all.

For further details, please contact, Yvonne Johnson at 302-857-6694 or through email at yjohnson@desu.edu

35. National Organization for Black Law and Executives

The objective of this organization is to ensure equity in the administration of justice within our community by being committed to justice by action.

For further details, please contact, Joi Daris at 302-857-6290 or through email at jdaris@desu.edu

36. National Council for Negro Women

The objective of this organization is to lead, develop, and advocate for black communities, female students and the general public through our activism, research and special programming.

For further details, please contact, Francine Edwards at 302-857-6570 or through email at fedwards@desu.edu
37. Pinnacle Honor Society

The objective is to create an organization where non-traditional students have the opportunity to become a member of an honor society with other adult/non-traditional students – making an impact in their community/surrounding areas.

For further details, please contact Amystique Y. Harris-Church at 302-857-6143 or through email at achurch@desu.edu

38. PRSSA

The objective of this organization is to serve our members by enhancing their knowledge of public relations and providing access to professional development opportunities and to serve the public relations profession by helping to develop highly qualified, well-prepared professionals.

For further details, please contact Francine Edwards at 302-857-6570 or through email at fedwards@desu.edu

39. Psychology Club

The psychology club is a service and social organization that actively promotes student involvement in psychology as a science and profession.

For further details, please contact Dr. Heidi Hoffman at 302-857-6609 or through email at hhoffman@desu.edu

40. Recycling Initiative

The objective of this club is to provide a reliable and accessible resource for the students of Delaware State University to recycle while influencing the university to go green.

For further details, please contact, Vita Pickrum at 302-857-6057 or through email at vpickrum@desu.edu
41. Republic of Fashion Club

The objective of this organization is to nurture the development of our future DSU fashion professions. The goal is to provide its students with information and skills needed to facilitate their professional development most of all to have fun while achieving these goals.

For further details, please contact, Jung Mi Oh at 302-857-6466 or through email at joh@desu.edu

42. S.A.R.A.H

The objective of this club is to provide multiple support systems for a variety of students by hosting motivational speeches and presentations.

For further details, please contact, Amystique Harris Church at 302-857-6143 or through email at achurch@desu.edu

43. Sister Circle

The objective of this organization is to target everyday issues that freshmen young ladies may come into contact with such as sexual safety, Greek life, self-esteem, the work load, staying on the academic road of excellence and ultimately helping them cope with making transition from living at home and attending high school to being away from home and living on a HBCU campus.

For further details, please contact, Dominique Lawson at 302-241-3686 or through email at dlawson@desu.edu

44. Social Work Club

The objective of this club is to provide awareness and understanding of current social work issues to Delaware State University and surrounding communities.

For further details, please contact Dolores Finger-Wright at 302-857-6784 or through email at dwright@desu.edu
45. Soul Winning Action team (S.W.A.T)

The mission of this organization is to “Win the lost at any cost”. S.W.A.T Ministries at Delaware State University is a chapter to an already existing organization. Our commitment will continually be to anyone that is open and wants to develop in their commitment to Christ, commitment to HIS word, and commitment to living it out, which admonishes that when we come to Christ; it is He who works us both to will and do of HIS good pleasure.

For further details, please contact, Lisa Parker at 302-857-4143 or through email at lisaparker833@gmail.com.

46. Spoken Word Artist United

The objective of this organization is to actively inspire the livelihood and potential of literacy arts and drama through spoken word and other forms of musical expression.

For further details, please contact, Amystique Harris Church at 302-857-6143 or through email at mystiqueimage@yahoo.com.

47. Sports Management Organization

The Sports Management Organization aspires to enable its members to become leaders in their academic fields and future careers aspirations by providing networking opportunities and hands on work experience.

For further details, please contact Mark Still at 302-857-6614 or through email at mstill@desu.edu

48. Students Against a Godless Society

The objective of this organization is to spread the word of God and to provide students with an alternative to the secular campus life style.

For further details, please contact, Chester Boyd at 302-857-6128 or through email at cboyd@desu.edu
49. Teachers In Progress Club

The objective of this club is to provide community service opportunities; provide networking opportunities and professional development opportunities.

For further details, please contact, Connie Williams at 302-857-6731 or through email at cwilliams@desu.edu

50. The Wesley Foundation

The objective of this club is to educate and empower members of the university community in “faith that does justice” by way of conferences and community events.

For further details, please contact Mrs. J. Onwu at 302-547-7251 or through email at annlee1us@aol.com

51. Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund

The objective of this organization is to partner with our Member Institutions to increase access, retention and graduation rates of students attending their institutions; Identify and prepare Member Institution students who have significant leadership potential; and create for employers a pipeline of highly qualified Member Institution students and alumni.

For further details, please contact Dr. Robin Roberts at 302-857-6392 or through email at rroberts@desu.edu

52. The Rotaract Club of Delaware State University

The objective of this club is to establish a network of professional leaders all over the world and to provide various programming that will develop professionalism, leadership, teamwork and skills within members.

For further details, please contact, Kemal Atkins at 302-943-2188 or through email at katkins@desu.edu
53. The Curve

The objective of this organization is to promote positive body image and empower women who may not fit the mainstream image of beauty.

For further details, please contact Ms. Kamillah Lewis at 302-857-6391 or through email at klewis@desu.edu

54. Trivia Club

The objective of this organization is to promote academic excellence through the use of trivia play and promote student awareness about the HCASC competition.

For further details, please contact, Dawn Hopkins at 302-857-6057 or through email at dhopkins@desu.edu

55. Unite

The objective of this organization is to diversify thought and unify the student body and encourage them to go out and unify and befriend different people. Our job is to get educate the campus about diversity and different cultures. We will also empower people by speaking at against racism, ignorance and sexism as well as many other forms of hatred.

For further details, please contact, Donald Brown at 302-857-6565 or through email at dbrown@desu.edu

56. Unchained Martial Arts

The objective of this organization is to provide the students of Delaware State University with a large array of information about the diverse Martial Art styles such as Shaolin, Wrestling, Tae Kwon Do, Ju Jistu, Boxing, grappling arts, and many more; all these activities will also promote physical fitness within the campus.

For further details, please contact, Kenneth Hunt at 302-423-4873 or through email at khunt@desu.edu
57. W.I.N.G.S

The objective of this organization is to uplift the self-image of young women through education, guidance, and unification by improving the mental health of young women on campus while enhancing self worth.

For further details, please contact, Rosetta Brickhouse at 302-331-3183 or through email at rbrickhouse@desu.edu

58. X - Parli

The objective of this organization is to gain more recognition on and off campus for Delaware State University’s intellectualism within its student body.

For further details, please contact, Victor Santos at 302-857-7780 or through email at vsantos@desu.edu