Delaware State University
Department of Conferences and Events
Facilities and Rates

Wellness and Recreation Center
The 54,000-square-foot Wellness and Recreation Center includes dual basketball courts with seating areas and men's and women's locker rooms on the first floor. The second floor has a variety of Lifestyle weight machines, as well as a running track that extends around the circumference of the exercise areas and overlooks the basketball courts on the floor below. The facility also has a juice bar with table and seating and areas for aerobic and other fitness classes.

Connected to the Wellness & Recreation Center and its locker rooms is a swimming facility that features a fountain, three lap lanes, an interpool bench with water jets and four interpool basketball hoops.

Wellness and Recreation Center Rates
- Rates and dates must be approved by Vice President for Student Affairs

Martin Luther King, Jr. Student Center
The $23.4 million new student center complex, completed in late 2009, houses Austin Grill dining facility and has an abundant seating area on the first floor. Moreover, the first floor houses an enlarged DSU bookstore and post office, vast open lounge areas and a modest stage.

The student center's second floor has a 7,656-square-foot auditorium that may be partitioned into three separate parlors, which together have the capacity to hold a maximum of 750 people for dances, concerts and other types of seated auditorium-style events. In addition, each parlor is equipped with projectors and video screens for audiovisual needs, as well as the capacity to hold twelve (12) round tables and 200 chairs. Also found on the second floor is a game room, meeting room and open and closed lounge areas. This area is reserved for semiformal, formal events and themed events ONLY.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Student Center Rates
- All parlors - $1,600 for 5 hours of use
- Parlor A, B - $1,100 for 5 hours of use
- Single parlor - $600 for 5 hours of use
- Breakout Rooms - $200 for 5 hours of use

Bank of America Building
Located in the heart of the Delaware State University campus, the Bank of America building houses abundant space for your next business meeting, conference, seminar or small event. The first floor of the Bank of America Building features a fully operational Longwood Auditorium with abundant seating space, ample staging area for presentations, as well as equipment for audiovisual needs. In addition, the third floor also houses meeting room 309, which has the capacity to comfortably seat 100 people and also facilitates audiovisual presentations for consumer convenience.

Rooms that are not available for rent in the Bank of America Building include: Rooms 310, 308 and all computer labs unless otherwise approved by the Vice President of Student Affairs. Additionally, there is NO food allowed for any event hosted inside Longwood Auditorium.

Bank of America Rates
- Classroom - $125.00
- Longwood Auditorium - $1,200 for 5 hours of use

Education and Humanities Building and Theater
Calling all musicians, dancers, actors and other artists living in and coming to the Dover area in need of space for their rehearsal and performance needs! Look no further than the Education and Humanities Theater, located on the quaint and attractive campus of Delaware State University. Set to seat 1,000 people comfortably, the Education and Humanities Theater is fully operational and equipped with generous admission, seating and staging areas for any event.

Additionally, dressing rooms are available for all pre-performance preparations.

Please no food, beverage or balloons in the Education and Humanities Theater.

Education and Humanities Building Rates
- $1,600 for 5 hours of use including dressing rooms
- $400 for 5 hours of rehearsal

Memorial Hall Gymnasium
Stress less and host your next social event at Delaware State University! Take advantage of our open gym space that has the capacity to hold up to 1,500 people, generous entry space, as well as our top-of-the-line security that is required and provided at all events. Enjoy the best without the stress at Memorial Hall Gymnasium.

No high heels or re-entry allowed at this facility

Memorial Hall Gymnasium Rates
- $3,100 for first 8 hours, $30 per hour thereafter