

Hornet's Youth Enrichment Junior Counselor Program

The Hornet's Youth Enrichment (HYE) Junior Counselor Student Leadership Training (SLT) Program is a teen leadership program designed to provide young men and women with the skills and knowledge necessary to become well-qualified camp counselors. It will help these young people to develop the skills and motivation to serve as leaders, role models at camp, school and in their communities. The Junior Counselor program will be a lot of work but the Hornet's Youth Enrichment team will make it fun as well. We will balance the responsibilities to ensure both challenges and rewards.

The Hornet's Youth Enrichment Junior Counselor Program requires a commitment from the selected participant. Junior Counselors will be asked to exhibit responsible behavior and to abide by the rules set forth in the Hornet's Youth Enrichment Counselor Program Code of Conduct.

The HYE Junior Counselor Program will be an eight week session. The HYE team will select two participants for the Junior Counselor Programs.

To be considered as a participant in the HYE Junior Counselor program the requirements are as followed:

- Be between the ages of 13-15
- Submit an essay (2-pages max, doubled spaced) explaining why you would to participate in the HYE junior Counselor Program, what you are expecting to learn and what can you have to offer the program. Submit your essay to hiescamp@desu.edu. If applicable, provide additional information about any volunteer services or related experience with your essay.
- Be interviewed by the HYE Junior Counselor Program Director
- If selected submit registration forms and payment of $250.00
- Attend orientation
- Attend CPR/First Aid certification class

The essay deadline is May 1st. The Interview will be scheduled on an individual basis.
