

Undergraduate Degrees by College

The University conferred a record number of undergraduate degrees in the class of 2008 with a total of 455 awards. This was an increase of 9 percent above the class of 2004 when the University awarded 419 total undergraduate degrees.

The following graph shows undergraduate degrees awarded for the 2008 academic year by college. The University awarded the largest number of undergraduate degrees in in the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences with a total of 160 degrees or 35% of degrees awarded followed by the College of Health and Public Policy with 131 or 29%; the College of Business (86 or 19%); the College of Mathematics, Natural Sciences and Technology (41 or 9%); the College of Agriculture and Related Sciences (21 or 5%); and the College of Education (16 or 3%).

Undergraduate Degrees Awarded by College 2008

