

The Report on Athletic Program Participation Rates and Financial Support Data

All co-educational institutions of higher education that participate in any federal student financial aid program (Federal Pell, Federal SEOG, and Federal Family Education, Federal Perkins Loans, et al.) and have intercollegiate athletics programs must provide information concerning their intercollegiate athletics programs under the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act of 1994, Section 485g of the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 U.S.C. 1092.

This Act and accompanying federal regulations require that the following information, based on the previous reporting year, be available for inspection by students, prospective students, and the public by October 15 each year. An institution may use any format to disclose this information.

Name of Reporting Institution: Delaware State University

Information for the Reporting Year: 2018-19, beginning July 1, 2018 and ending June 30, 2019.

Number of Undergraduates (i.e. full-time, baccalaureate, degree-seeking students) by Gender (i.e. fall semester figures): Enrollment totals include students enrolled at campus/locations in the domestic United States as reported on the 2018-2019 IPEDS enrollment survey.

Category	Number	Percent
Male Undergraduates	1,509	33.6%
Female Undergraduates	2,985	66.4%
Total Undergraduates	4,494	100%

Table 1 – Athletics Participation

Federal regulations require that the following information, based on the previous reporting year, be available for inspection by students, prospective students, and the public by October 15 each year.

This table lists the number of participants by gender for each varsity team. According to the federal regulations governing EADA reporting, a participant is defined as a student-athlete who, as of the day of a varsity team’s first scheduled contest: (a) is listed by the institution on the varsity team’s roster; or (b) receives athletically-related student aid; or (c) practices with the varsity team and receives coaching from one or more varsity coaches. Any student-athlete who satisfies one or more of these criteria as a participant is counted within the participants listed below. In addition, student-athletes on a team the institution designates or defines as junior varsity, freshmen, or novice, or a student withheld from competition to preserve eligibility (i.e. redshirt) or for academic, medical, or other reasons are included.

Table 2A – Head Coach Assignments, Men’s Teams

This table lists the number of head coaches assigned to each men’s team, whether that coach is a male or female, whether that coach is assigned to that team on a full-time or part-time basis, and whether that coach is a full-time employee of the institution. All Delaware State University (DSU) head coaches receive compensation. For purposes of this report, the term “Full Time Coaching Duties” indicates the individual’s position description at DSU reflects a list of work performance responsibilities exclusively as head coach of that team, and only that team, and are consistent with the university’s definition of a full-time institutional employee or part-time employee of the university. The term “Full Time University Employee” means the individual’s overall employment responsibilities at the institution are consistent with the institution’s definition of a full-time employee and the employee has work performance responsibilities in addition to serving as head coach of that team, either within the athletics department and/or within another university department.

Table 2B – Assistant Coach Assignments, Men’s Teams

This table lists the number of assistant coaches assigned to each men’s team, whether that coach is a male or female, whether that coach is assigned to that team on a full-time or part-time basis, and whether that coach is a full-time employee of the institution. This table includes paid assistant coaches, volunteer coaches, and graduate assistant coaches. For purposes of this report, the term “Full Time Coaching Duties” indicates the individual’s position description at DSU reflects a list of work performance responsibilities exclusively as assistant coach of that team, and only that team, and are consistent with the university’s definition of a full-time institutional employee or part-time employee of the university. Table 4 – Operating Expenses (Commonly referred to as Game Day Expenses)

Operating (Game-Day) expenses are all expenses and institution incurs attributable to home, away, and neutral-site intercollegiate athletics contests for lodging, means, transportation, uniforms for coaches, team members, and team affiliated support staff. This expense category also includes game day officials, and the operating (game-day) expense category represents a subset of the Total Expense category.

Note: Operating expenses per participant for Track and Field and Cross Country are determined by adding the sum of cross country + indoor track and field + outdoor track and field participants

Table 6 – Athletically Related Student Aid

This table lists the total amount of athletically related student-aid awarded to men and women student-athletes. Athletically related student aid is any scholarship, grant, or other form of financial assistance, offered by an institution, the terms of which require the recipient to participate in a program of intercollegiate athletics at the institution. Other student aid, of which student-athlete just happens to be a recipient, is not athletically related student aid.

2018-2019 Athletics Expenses and Revenues

The EADA (Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act) Report represents a framework for assessing Delaware State University's (DSU) actions toward increasing the equitable training and competitive opportunities for all intercollegiate athletics programs through the disclosure of annual expenditures and revenues. In 2018-19, DSU's female undergraduate enrollment represented 66.4% while female student-athletes across 11 programs and 12 championship seasons totaled an unduplicated count of 46.1% of all Hornet Athletics' participants. Compared to the 2017-2018 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) unduplicated female student-athlete head counts, DSU ranks second highest across all 11 member institutions.

In 2018-2019, Women's sport program game day expenditures totaled 48.8% ($924,092) compared to men's disbursements of $968,099. In addition, FY 2019 women's game day expenses represented a $118,400 (i.e. 1.6%) increase compared to FY 2018, while women's student-athlete grant-in-aid and recruiting distributions amounted to 46.2% ($1,823,995) and 43.7% ($57,612) of DSU Athletics' total expenditures in these categories. In brief, women's FY 2019 recruiting expenditures increased 16.4% compared to FY 2018.

Compared to 2017-2018 EADA data for non-football playing MEAC member institutions, DSU expended the highest percentage of women's athletic scholarship aid. Specific to personnel and participants, Delaware State's investment in men's and women's sport program coaching salaries, student-athlete recruitment, and grant-in-aid awards represented 49.1% ($6,118,412) of the Athletics Department's total expenditures in 2018-19. Under new departmental leadership in FY 2019, nine new head coach hires occurred in addition to the launch of a departmental salary plan. The combination of these factors reduced the FTE salary differential between head coaches of men's and women's athletics programs by 54.9% (i.e. $48,537) and by 33.2% (i.e. $9,090) across men's and women's programs assistant coaches.

Women's Sport Program Expansion

From 2005 – 2013 the DSU Athletics Department launched seven new women's intercollegiate athletics programs (i.e. bowling, soccer, and softball, 2005; equestrian and tennis, 2007; golf and lacrosse, 2013). Although DSU initiated an accelerated pace of women's sport program expansion, athletics scholarships resources for these programs did not incrementally advance student-athlete participation growth in ways that readily achieved gender proportionality.

Acknowledging this need for further growth, Delaware State University's FY 2019 State of Delaware Office of Management and Budget (OMB) funding requests included three proposals regarding the successful implementation of a six-year gender equity plan designed to cumulatively increase women's grant-in-aid offerings to NCAA I Division I full equivalency limits. This initiative positions the DSU athletics department to achieve gender participation, grant-in-aid expenditure, and recruiting budget proportionality while also becoming the Nation's first HBCU NCAA Division I institution with football to achieve these Federal benchmarks. DSU increased women's sport scholarship budgets $349,995 with a total of 50.4% of the department's 2019-2020 total scholarship budget allocated to women's intercollegiate athletics programs.

Fully Funding Sport Programs

Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) peer analyses in athletics expenditures helps guide the DSU Athletics Department's competitive and women's sport program expansion strategies. In addition, the DSU Athletics Department's strategic expansion of women's varsity sport offerings and six-year plan for stepwise increases in scholarship allocations aims to incrementally reflect the university's percentage of female undergraduate students. With the partnership of state funding support, by 2025 women's athletic scholarship funding is projected to exceed $3.4 million and support 133.5 scholarship equivalencies across 13 varsity programs (14 championship seasons).

Revenue Generation

DSU Athletics aims to work diligently to ensure that all 16 sport programs (five men's, 11 women's) across all 18 championship seasons (six men's, 12 women's) are treated fairly and equitably. In brief, Delaware State University seeks to provide all intercollegiate athletics programs with the recruiting resources, training tools, and competitive opportunities that lead to performance expertise both academically and athletically.

In 2018-19 DSU Athletics expended $12,457,825 in total operational costs. Institutional support accounted for the majority of the department's financial support while revenue generation in the general categories of gifts, sales, and contractually obligated earnings accounted for nearly $1.6 million. To this end, philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support will remain perpetual priorities, particularly with regards to facility renovations and expansion.

Facilities

Delaware State University enjoys centrally located, on-campus athletic and recreational sport facilities. The athletics department maintains three on-campus stadiums supporting baseball, football, softball, lacrosse, soccer, and men's and women's track-field. Hornet Athletics also utilizes Memorial Gymnasium in support of men's and women's basketball and volleyball, and leases space with the Dovington Training Center for women's equestrian. Women's golf trains at the Wild Quail Golf Course, women's tennis at the Colonial Tennis Club, and women's bowling at Doverama Lanes.
