

Delaware State University

Bequest Intention Form

Bequests are a key way for donors to make an impact that will live on for generations. These gifts provide Delaware State University with a firm foundation so that we may confidently invest in our students and our future.

By sharing with us your bequest plans, you become a member of the Delaware State University Endowed Giving Society, which includes invitations to special programs throughout the year and University-level recognition for your generosity.

Bequest gifts to DSU can include cash, securities, real estate or other property through your will, codicil or trust instrument. You can also name DSU as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or to receive a designated percentage of your estate upon your passing.

Of course, this intention form is revocable, should you need to alter your will at any time. And finally, we encourage all of our donors to consult with trusted tax and financial professionals to help you make the right decision for you and your family.

Sample Testamentary Language:

“I commit $_____ or X% of the residue of my estate to Delaware State University, for its general educational and charitable purposes.”

To document your bequest intention and join our Endowed Giving Society, please complete the form on the next page.

Documenting Your Bequest Intention:

In order to support the educational mission of Delaware State University, I have included a non-contingent bequest to Delaware State University as part of my estate plan. A copy of the relevant provision of my will or trust is attached. If I make any change to this provision, I will notify the University of such a change.
