The Tale of the Hornet and the Wolverine: A Complex Substantive Change Journey to New Horizons

Delaware State University

Acquisition of Wesley College

MSCHE 2021 Annual Conference
December 2021
Presenters & Agenda

- Dr. Tony Allen, President Delaware State University
  - Acquisition Substantive Change from the President's Perspective
- Dr. Lynda Murray-Jackson, Assoc. VP Institutional Effectiveness & ALO and Ms. Christine McDermott, Accreditation/Assessment Specialist
  - Substantive Change Process from the ALO Perspective
- Dr. Idna Corbett, MSCHE VP Liaison & Institutional Field Relations
  - Value of Advanced Planning and Responsive Personnel at the Institution
- Dr. Amy Moseder, VP for Policy and Regulatory Affairs
  - Policy and Legal Implications of Acquisition Substantive Change
- Questions and Answers
Learning Outcomes:

- Importance of having and involving an ALO who knows and understands MSCHE processes, policies, and procedures
- Importance of early and consistent communication with MSCHE and program accreditors
- Importance of a good teach-out plan
- Value of advanced planning
- Importance of legal review of the complex substantive change
Submitting Questions for the Q&A

Chat throughout the session

Oral questions at the end